MEETING AT FORT QU'APPELLE.

A public meeting of the electors of the District of Qu'Appelle was called by posters to be held on Saturday afternoon last at Fort Qu'Appelle, for the purpose of selecting a candidate to fill the vacancy in the Northwest Council occasioned by the resignation of Mr. T. W. Jackson.

About four o'clock the town hall was well filled with electors, the larger number of whom were from Fort Qu'Appelle and vicinity, with contingents from Indian Head and Qu'Appelle.

Mr. S. Cruthers was voted to the chair, and Mr. F. S. Proctor, of the Vilette, appointed secretary of the meeting. Nominations were called for, when the following were made:

Moved by Mr. Russell Smith, seconded by Mr. J. Nixon, that Mr. Robt. Crawford, of Indian Head, be a candidate for the office of Northwest Councillor.

Mr. S. Gower, seconded by Mr. Wm. Smith, nominated Mr. G. S. Davidson, of Qu'Appelle.

Messrs Crawford and Davidson addressed the meeting briefly giving an outline of their views on matters affecting this election.

Mr. Wm. Sutherland was then nominated by Mr. H. E. Joyner, and seconded by Mr. Bonnycastle.

Mr. Sutherland also briefly addressed the meeting, but failed to express his views, if he had any, on the duties of a representative to the Northwest Council. His remarks showed clearly that he was a candidate for the sole object if possible of preventing any person residing outside of Fort Qu'Appelle from being elected.

A motion was then made that a vote be taken by ballot on the three names before the meeting. This was put to the meeting and lost, when it was decided to take a show of hands.

The resolutions were then put, that of Mr. Crawford being first in order. It was quickly voted down by a large opposing majority.

Mr. Davidson's name was then presented to the meeting. Fully one half or more of the voters present showed their hands in favor, and after several countings the chairman declared the vote a tie. Several suggestions were then made as to a mode of arriving at a decision, and time enough was consumed to bring in three opponents to Mr. Davidson; another vote was then called for and taken when it was declared carried against him, by a majority of three composed of combined forces of Messrs Crawford and Sutherland.

The name of Mr. Wm. Sutherland was then put the meeting; his friends voted for him, and they were far from being half of the meeting but when those against him were called for only three or four voted, it having become evident by this time that the strongest man had not got the nomination of the meeting, and that under the circumstances all three candidates would run as a choice had been made.

The meeting was then declared in favor of Mr. Sutherland, though it was apparent to all if the votes had been taken by ballot all at one time for the three candidates, that Mr. Davidson would have taken much the largest number of those present. An analysis of the votes taken shows that fully one-half or more of the electors present supported Mr. Davidson and that the other half was divided between Messrs Sutherland and Crawford.

Just before the meeting was brought to a close, Mr. Davidson declared his intention of running as a candidate, and asked the support of the electors.

A number of country police on duty at Indian Head have been sent home.

THE ELECTION.

Since our last issue, matters have developed very rapidly in connection with the election contest in which the free and independent electors of Qu'Appelle district are now called upon to engage. At the time of the issue of last week's PROGRESS but one candidate was definitely announced as being in the field. Since then it appears that no less than four gentlemen have declared their intention of running, namely: Messrs. G. S. Davidson and Leslie Gordon, of Qu'Appelle, Wm. Sutherland, of Fort Qu'Appelle, and Major Phipps, of Summerbury. We have thus two candidates in the west, one in the extreme east, one in the northwest and one in the centre. The principles of THE PROGRESS are diametrically opposed to sectionalism of any character. It has not, and never will, uphold one locality to the detriment of another. Though published at Qu'Appelle, that does not of necessity imply that it will decry the interests of any of our neighboring towns. Its columns are ever open to help all in the onward march to prosperity. In our opinion the only question of locality that enters into this contest arises from the fact that the eastern portion of the district has now one of the representatives in the Northwest Council and that the west is entitled to the other. In this view of the case, all are agreed, and the east is prepared to support the choice of the west, providing that he is a capable man. This leaves Major Phipps out of the race altogether, as we understand his following is very small. As to the other candidates, THE PROGRESS has no hesitation in saying that Mr. G. S. Davidson is the strongest man, by reason of his superior qualifications for the position. We expressed our opinion of Mr. Crawford last week, and while entertaining the highest respect for that gentleman, we must say that he is not popular in the east, and the vast majority of the electors of the whole district would prefer a still better qualified man. To ascertain if such a man could not be found a meeting was held at Fort Qu'Appelle on Saturday last, at which a grave weakness in Mr. Crawford's candidature was made manifest. Though Mr. Wm. Sutherland, of Fort Qu'Appelle, was nominated at the meeting, and it was very largely composed of gentlemen from the Fort and vicinity, the combined strength of both Messrs. Crawford and Sutherland was hardly equal to that of Mr. Davidson. Such being the case, Mr. Davidson's friends were right in insisting on his announcing himself in the field. The candidature of Mr. Wm. Sutherland is handicapped from the fact that he is the nominee of sectionalism. If he had held back another year his chances for the representation of the new district of Fort Qu'Appelle, which will no doubt be erected at this session of the Council, would no doubt have been excellent. But having allowed himself to be nominated rather than allow Qu'Appelle or any other part of the district to obtain the representative to be elected, he thereby shows his own sectional spirit and spoils his prospects for the future. It therefore becomes the duty of the electors of the rest of the district to tell Mr. Sutherland by their votes that they will not tolerate such a spirit in any candidate offering himself for election. Of all the candidates Mr. Leslie Gordon may have some claim upon the constituency. He was a candidate at the last election, and having been before the public, it was natural that the public attention would be directed towards him. But having, in common with all who know him, the utmost respect for Mr. Gordon, we regret that circumstances compel us to say that his candidature is weakened by grave defects. The smallness of the vote he polled outside of this town at the last election shows lack of popularity, and then as compared with Mr. G. S. Davidson, he is wanting in that public push and energy that should characterize a representative in any legislative body. The support Mr. Gordon may receive will only tend to weaken that of Mr. Davidson, but will not be sufficient to prevent the election of the latter. The question very naturally arises what was Mr. Gordon doing when Mr. Davidson, in company with Mr. McLane, went to work and made estimates and did other work necessary to secure money for the district for public improvements? Does not this instance show the difference between the public spirit of the two men. It view of all the circumstances above referred to, the electors of the district will no doubt return Mr. Davidson, with the full knowledge that he is the most capable and energetic of all the candidates seeking their suffrages.

MR. DAVIDSON'S ADDRESS.

In another column will be found the election address of Mr. G. S. Davidson, who is a candidate for the vacancy caused in the Northwest Council by Mr. T. W. Jackson's resignation. The key note of the address is the question of representation. Mr. Davidson is a candidate brought out by the people to secure a redistribution of the electoral districts, and he gives no uncertain sound on this important question. He believes that the full representation of the whole people of the country would secure for them twenty-one members of the Council, when that body would then become a wholly representative one. In this belief Mr. Davidson is supported by the vast majority of the electors. His reference to the "Local Improvement Fund" will be of interest to all. It is only a few days since he, as a private individual in conjunction with Mr. A. M. McLane, obtained $1625 from that fund to be expended in the district. If by his influence and energy Mr. Davidson could do this much as a private individual, what might not be expected of him if elected a member of the Northwest Council? The public spirit he manifests here is the result of training in the province of Ontario where he represented the town of Palmerston in the County Council of Wellington for a number of years, which position he held till he resigned to come to the Northwest. By virtue of Mr. Davidson's experience in that respect he is peculiarly fitted to fill the position for which he is asking the suffrages of the electors. His return would be an assurance that the interests of the district would be well looked after, and that its wants as well as those of the whole Northwest would be attended to by a strong and capable team, should he be elected as the colleague of Mr. W. D. Perly, our present worthy representative.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Parnell's Home Rule Bill has been thrown out of the Imperial Parliament by a vote of 297 to 202.

The initial teatrade of Port Moody this year via the Canadian Pacific amounts to five cargoes, 160,000 packages valued at $2,000,000. Not a bad beginning for our national highway.

Today is nomination day for the election of a representative in the Northwest, for Qu'Appelle district in the place of Mr. T. W. Jackson. There seen now to be five candidates in the field. How many more today will develop, it is hard to say. It would not be a bad idea to require ambitious candidates to put up a deposit, which would be forfeited if they did not poll a certain number of votes.

THE BRITISH SEALERS.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Despatches have been received at the Navy Department from Lieutenant-Commander Nichol, commanding the Pinta, from Sitka, Alaska, relating to the seizure of the British sealers, in which he says:—"August 24 the revenue steamer Corwin came in bringing the American vessel San Diego of San Francisco, seized for catching seals unlawfully. She also reported the seizure of three English schooners for the same offence. The latter were left at Oumalaska, in charge of the United States Deputy Marshal, the officers, crews and cargoes being brought here. A large quantity of arms and ammunition was also seized. It is probable that interesting international questions will come up, as well also as the jurisdiction of the United States over the entire seas of the Arctic and Behring Seas east of the boundary line. When the cases were brought before the circuit court the captain and mate of the British schooner Thornton, were tried by jury, found guilty, and sentenced each to imprisonment for thirty days and fined, the captain $500 and the mate $300. The captain and mate of the American schooner San Diego waived a jury and were tried before the court. Both were found guilty and sentenced, the captain to 2 months' imprisonment and the mate to 1 month's imprisonment. The cases of the two other British sealers will come up in a day or two. The captain of one of them has disappeared, and it is supposed, has committed suicide. From an inclosure in these despatches it is learned that Corwin, when conveying her prizes to port, sighted five other vessels, all doubtless engaged in unlawful sealing. They made sail with all possible haste as soon as the revenue vessel was sighted, and the latter was unable to follow them without abandoning her prizes.

Gabriel Dumont is a member of a fishing party camped at Notre Dame de Louis, in Ottawa country, 40 miles from this city. His companions include prominent French Canadian residents of Buckingham. Gabriel is expected to return shortly to the Northwest.

THE "PICTURE" INCIDENT.

EXTRACT FROM A SPEECH OF HON. THOMAS WHITE AT MERRICKVILLE.

"In the course of the speech I made at Cayuga I exhibited a portrait of Louis Riel, under circumstances which I will explain to you. This was on the last day that I was in the county, because I left Haldimand the following morning, the day of the nomination, the 1st of September, and came down to attend an Indian church picnic at which I had engaged to be present, on the Mohawk reserve at Deseronto on the 2nd. It has been charged against me that at this meeting at Cayuga I was guilty of a brutal insult to my Roman Catholic fellow subjects. The precise charge—and it is of the utmost importance in matters of this kind to deal with the precise charge—as made in the Toronto Globe, and as since repeated in nearly all the newspapers in the country opposed to the Government, was in these words:

"At a meeting at Cayuga last week Hon. Thomas White accentuated an incendiary speech by producing a portrait of Riel with a rope around his neck. As he unveiled the portrait, he sneeringly remarked: 'This is one of the new saints of the Roman Catholic Church.'"

Now, it is impossible to imagine a more malicious falsehood than is contained in that statement; it is impossible to imagine a more deliberate perversion of what I thought and said on that occasion. I was dealing with this new issue which our fellow-subjects in the province of Quebec had presented to them, which our opponents have placed before the people of that province, and I was pointing out what had occurred at the nomination for the county of Chambly. I stated that Mr. Chapleau, the secretary of state, while addressing the electors on that occasion, had presented to him on large boards by preconcerted arrangements, portraits of Louis Riel with a rope round his neck and a bunch of immortelles on his breast, while at the same moment a rope was attempted to be thrown round his (Mr. Chapleau's) own neck. I exhibited a copy of the precise portrait held up before Mr. Chapleau on that occasion, and I said:

"These Liberals in the province of Quebec, who are so anxious to excite the passions of the people there, to arouse their national and religious prejudices, are actually causing this portrait to be hung on the walls of the people, alongside of the portraits of the holy men of their church, whose lives are to them incentives to good living."

That was the statement which I made, and if anyone can find in that statement a suspicion of insult to the Roman Catholic Church, or a suggestion that Louis Riel was one of the saints of that church, all I can say is that his powers of vision are much greater than my own, and his powers of perversion much greater than it is reasonable or proper for anyone to possess.

ADDRESS

ELECTORS

—OF THE—

District of Qu'Appelle

GENTLEMEN,—

Having been requested by a large number of the electors of the district of Qu'Appelle, to offer myself as a candidate to fill the seat in the Northwest Council rendered vacant by the resignation of Mr. T. W. Jackson, I have after careful and deliberate consideration decided to accept the nomination, and most earnestly solicit your support.

I shall, if elected, devote that time and attention to the duties of the position as its importance demands. The re-organization of the electoral districts and the claims of all outlying settlements unrepresented shall receive my first and most careful attention, hoping by so doing to secure for the people a legislative assembly at an early date, directly responsible to them, thus securing entire control of their own affairs.

I shall at an early date discuss before you such questions as are likely to occupy the attention of the Northwest Council at its next session.

If elected, I shall at all times carefully look after the particular interests of all portions of the district and see that all receive a fair and equitable share of the appropriations from the "Local Improvement Fund" of the Council.

As I cannot hope to meet you all I ask that you give me your vote and influence on the 14th day of October next, and if elected, I promise to serve you faithfully, impartially and to the best of my ability.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

G. S. DAVIDSON.

THE PEACE RIVER RAILWAY.

Mr. A. P. Macdonald, the well-known railway contractor, is again in the city. In conversation with a representative of The Sun, Mr. Macdonald expressed his belief that the railway to Peace River would certainly go ahead next summer. He said that Mr. Manning, one of the charter applicants, had been to London to float the scheme, and had met with flattering success. But even if they did not raise a dollar the applicants were wealthy enough to build most of the line themselves. All they now wanted from the Dominion Government was a grant of ten thousand acres of land per mile, the land to be selected in the Peace River country. Mr. Macdonald said the company was negotiating to purchase the old grade from Winnipeg to Stony Mountain, off which the rails had been taken. The amount asked for the grade was $25,000 per mile, which was regarded as a pretty high figure. Mr. Macdonald said there was no doubt but such a road would pay. Starting from Winnipeg it went to the Narrows, where plenty of salt existed. Thence on to Fort La Corn and on to Lac la Biche where petroleum flows in abundance. Passing the south shore of Little Slave Lake the line goes on to Fort Daeragan on the Peace River, and skirting the south shore of the river it goes on to Fort Simpson. With the Hudson's Bay route open, a branch could be built from Fort Daeragan to Fort Churchill, and so the great product of the Peace River country could be sent direct to Europe.—Sun.

BRITISH COLUMBIA FORTIFICATIONS.

Col. Black, officer of the British army, arrived in the city yesterday and is staying at the Leland House. A representative of The Sun had some conversation with him respecting the fortifications at Esquimaux harbor, British Columbia. The Colonel, who is a very affable gentleman, would not admit that his visit was an official one, but he stated in a general way that he inspected the harbor and goes pretty fully into the proposed fortifications there. While the Col. would not go into figures he stated that the intention of the British Government was to make Esquimaux an impregnable harbor, and that no money or pains would be spared to make it such. Esquimaux would also be made an important depot for munitions of war. He remarked that the British Government fully appreciated the importance of the Canadian Pacific Railway to the Empire from a military standpoint. It rendered the Empire almost impregnable on the Pacific, which had always been regarded as a rather weak point. The Colonel was very much impressed with the C. P. R., the magnificence and excellence of the work and the grand mountain scenery in the country through which it traverses. He traveled over all the United States lines, and particularly the Pacific lines, since coming to the country, and he had no hesitation in saying that the C. P. R. was in every point the superior of them all.—Sun, Winnipeg.

Another wave of morality, says the Mail, has swept over the Toronto Globe. "The other day it charged Hon. Thomas White with Sabbath breaking because he went to an Indian reserve in the Northwest on a Sunday and told the Indians to observe the teachings of their pastor. Now the trouble is with the private business of Hon. John Carling. He is, it is alleged, a brewer, and therefore a very wicked man who should not be allowed to take an interest in the good government and prosperity of his country or to attend a Methodist church. The Pharisee who made this attack upon Mr. Carling no doubt knew well enough that the Minister has no interest in the brewery. But even if he has an interest in one, the reform politicians are not in a position to wax virtuous. They regarded Mr. Wiser as a first class colleague in Parliament and he is a distiller; and they do not think Mr. Jaffray too base to aid in the management of their party, and he has handled many hundreds of barrels of old rye in the way of trade."

Geronimo and his hostiles have been taken to Florida.

BULGARIAN AFFAIRS.

Sofia, Sept. 22.—After the adjournment of the Solovnjak, on Saturday, a number of deputies met and denominated Prince Alexander as one of the principal heroes of the revolution of 1885, and expressing the hope that he would soon return to Bulgaria. In the evening a grand banquet was given in celebration of the Roumanian revolution. The procession, headed by the priest and accompanied by military bands, paraded through the town, and subsequently a review of the troops was held. The day was observed as a national holiday. At public and private gatherings everywhere toasts were drunk to Prince Alexander.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—It is stated the Czar now wishes Prince Montenegro to take the Bulgarian throne.

London, Sept. 22.—Advices from Sofia say the members of the Bulgarian Government have stated that they intend to resign.

The Russian agent at Sofia has officially threatened to suspend relations with Bulgaria if the Government yield to the Solovnjak's demand for the punishment of the authors of the revolutionary conspiracy.

England and Turkey are reported to have re-established a complete entente cordiale.

Turkey is making warlike preparations.

The Post Belgia correspondent says Turkey will remonstrate against the action of Russia in impeding the Bulgarian court martial, and will strongly uphold the Porte's anarchy fight over Bulgaria.

Russia demands a Coroon harbor or a naval station.

England, Austria, and Italy have recognized the Bulgarian Regency.

Dame Nature is obstreperous. She not only breaks out in spots as in Bellefleur, Iowa and then disrupts matters as in South Carolina, but she has now put her back in Pennsylvania and is shutting off their supply of oil and gas. The Connersburg Iron Company in Pittsburgh has been compelled to shut down its extensive works because its supply of natural gas has given out. It was supposed to be inexhaustible and manufacturers have been using it with the utmost prodigality. In Pittsburgh its use has revolutionized the glass and steel industry. It was so much cheaper than coal that its introduction was hailed as a new blessing. Now the collapse of the Connersburg works has seriously alarmed those who have been depending upon it for their supply of fuel and they do not know what to think. The theory has already been broached that the escape of so much gas must have made great cavities in the earth's interior and that the recent earthquake was only the effort of nature to fill up the cavities thus made. In the meantime the manufacturers are uneasy and are exhorted each other to be economical in the use of the fuel. So extensive is its use that its failure would compel the iron and gas men to resort again to coal and would cause them great loss.—Sun.

Says the St. Paul Pioneer Press: "The Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries has formally raised the new question of the fishery and seal rights of the United States in Alaskan waters. There are the germs of a question of considerable magnitude to settle. Our rights to a large portion of the sea south of Alaska rests upon Russia's cession of the same to us when she ceded Alaska. The point to settle is where Russia obtained her suzerainty to the ocean east of the extreme southern limit of Kamtschatka. The matter will have to be adjusted by international arbitration." Yes, and wouldn't it be well at the same time to have it adjusted by international arbitration whether Russia is at liberty to sell the Pacific Ocean to the United States?

Negotiations have been in progress several weeks with the Government for the transfer of all government telegraph lines in the Northwest to the commercial telegraph system of the Canadian Pacific. It is understood that there is a likelihood of the scheme being cranked out. The departmental officials think otherwise, claiming that the revenue is only $7,000 per annum, as compared with an expenditure of $17,000. The government telegraph system there is over eight hundred miles in extent, including the main line to Edmonton and five branches.

God's Witness.—We do not need to study the philosophies and speculations of men in order to be convinced that there is a God. It is true that our faith may be strengthened by investigating the arguments that are advanced in support of the Christian religion; and it is certain that millions of souls have been cheered and supported by a real knowledge of the personal and special dealings of the Holy Spirit; but the mind which cannot be convinced by those continual witnesses which are daily set before it in the works of nature, the changing seasons, the majestic sun, and the mysterious stars, cannot ordinarily be convinced by the most imposing array of theological arguments. The necessity for a cause to produce an effect is not an idea which has been developed through an intricate course of reasoning; it is a principle which lies at the very foundation of all reason, and first challenges the attention of intelligent beings. In vain it is said that the movements and operations of matter are merely the results of fundamental and everlasting laws; for while such laws may indirectly be great and efficient causes, they must themselves be the effects of a cause still greater and more efficient, and before all effects there must be a cause which is no effect, but is eternally self-existent. Besides this, these laws would be wholly vain and inefficient were they not applied and sustained by a designing and intelligent mind.

"The meanest, the most useless and most contemptible vice that ever grew rank in the hot-house of the devil is profane swearing. We protest against it as members of society, as decent men. On boats, in cars, in places of business, on the open streets, at concert doors and everywhere else ringing the incessant oaths of the habitual swearer. Young men just learning to curse appear to think there is something manly and brave about it while old swears interlard the commonest remarks they make with cold-blooded blasphemous and a variety of diabolical curses. No man or woman of any refinement or decency at all can be otherwise than lacerated and shocked by these brutal verbal missiles every day; and no fellow who is shamefully guilty of projecting them can do otherwise than sink beneath the contempt of such men and women with every vile epithet they hear him utter. Public profanity ought to be an indictable offence with a penalty of ten days in goal for every oath."

The St. Paul Pioneer Press says that the British government has not been idle since the difficulty with Russia last year over the Afghan-Turkistan boundary line. An agreement as to that boundary has just been reached, but the British government, having no confidence in Russia's pledges, has quietly completed the Quetta branch of the Indus Valley railroad, and arrangements are making to extend it from Quetta to Kabul. This will place the whole of Afghanistan at the mercy of the British government and furnish a fine strategic base against Russian movements on Herat.

Wild Rice is very plentiful on Lake of the Woods and others in the Northwest and was formerly largely used here but the imported article has almost driven it out. The Indians gather it by boating the heads into the canoe from either side then parching or drying it, though some is not treated. It is rather longer than the common rice of commerce, is rounder, has a black hull, has about the usual flavor though it seems richer and some are very fond of it. Where it grows the wild ducks resort and furnish capital fat shooting.

A Winnipeg fur dealer says that a large number of bear skins have been lately brought in which are entirely useless, the bears having been killed out of season. The dry weather has driven the bears out of their retreats in search of water, and many have strayed into the settlements, where they have been wantonly slain at a time of year when neither their flesh nor hides is of any value. The Manitoba black bear is said to be a very harmless animal, and few if any instances have been reported where harm has been done by them to either man or beast. It would seem, therefore, that their indiscriminate slaughter at all times of the year is not only an unnecessary but an unwise policy. Some fur dealers think that such a valuable fur-bearing animal should be protected by a close season.

A violent outbreak of cholera has occurred at Torre del Annunziata, near Naples.

The principal cities of the Union are organizing schemes of relief for the Southern earthquake sufferers.

A READY RESPONSE.
"I've earthly goods enough," said he;
"I've glittering gold goblets,
I've hermines and blue a brace
And jewels by the score."
"But oh! with all my worldly goods
I feel a longing still,
There is, my dearest maid, a blank
That you alone can fill."
"A blank? Thank heaven!" the maiden cried;
"Daddy's insolvent now,
And if your credit at the bank
Is what they all allow,
Just make the paper out to me
And sign it with a will,
And I will prove the same a blank
That I can quickly fill."

THE OLD HOUSE ON THE HILL.
The little old house on the hill,
Dark behind,
The tall pines; and before,
The white drift of the sea to the shore.
Across the night-shadows, the trill
Of a hand,
And the tender and sweet
Love sigh of the grass at my feet.
O little old house on the hill!
Where is she
Who in sunshine and snow
Hers dwelt in the years long ago?
Beyond the wilderness, and the shrill
Cry of winds,
(One hath borne her away,
Across us as high as yon star,
A little old house on the hill!
Sweet her eyes!
And how fragrant and fair her hair!
The ruffled gold of her hair!
Lush love in her heart hold us still!
Nay! The night
How it darkens grows dull—
O little old house on the hill!

An Irish ship, the Lord Templeton pronounced the largest barque-rigged sailing vessel in the world, lately arrived at Baltimore. She has a steel hull, and her lower and top masts, boomprit and jibboom are of the same material, and her standing rigging, brace runners, baysards, etc., are of iron rope. She is 270 feet long, 40 feet beam, and 23 feet 8 inches depth of hold, with a cargo capacity of 3,200 tons. She is commanded by Capt.
Robert Hawthorne, whom the Sun pronounces a generous Irishman, thirty-two years old, and Robert Mc-Neal, a young Belfast sailor, is chief mate. The Lord Templeton is essentially an Irish ship. She was constructed in an Irish shipyard by Irish mechanics and, with one exception, is manned by an Irish crew. She is named after an Irish landlord, who, however, is represented as one who never "evicts," and she is owned by Irish merchants. And last, but not least, from her mainmast-head flies the Irish Ship Company's private flag, with a three leaved shamrock outlined against a field of blue.

A workingman who cares for his family, states that "two drinks of whisky costs a pound and a half of bacon; two beers, a dinner of mutton chop; one cocktail, an egg plant or a head of cauliflower. 'What will you take, Charley?' stands for a nice oyster supper for the whole family on Sunday. 'Set 'em up again!' means sugar in the house for a month."
This is a bit of practical economy—
Mr. West Farmer.

The prohibitionists of Eastern Canada are discussing the advisability of forming a third political party.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from practice,
having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail

WEBSTER'S PRACTICAL
Probably all of our readers have occasion to use a dictionary every day. In some cases words cannot be correctly applied; in others, the pronunciation is difficult. While in still other cases the meaning is not understood. This is true, not only of children and of the uneducated, but of many of the most intelligent as well; and every one who attempts to do without Webster's Practical Dictionary attempts to do without one-half of his opportunities for intellectual improvement.
Webster's Practical is an entirely new work by the editor and publisher of Webster's Unabridged and contains more than twice the amount of matter and illustrations ever before offered for the price.
Nearly 1,000 Pictures from Webster's Practical Dictionaries.
I have embodied several entirely new features, which render it pre-eminent to such a degree that it is a general reference to every household. It will not pay to use even the best of the older works any more than it would pay to journey across the country in a lumbering old stage-coach while the modern advantages of a building express are available. Those wishing to see sample pages and learn the particulars in regard to these new features before purchasing, should send their address to —Qu'Appelle Lodge of Free Masons meets in regular communication on Tuesday next in the Masonic Hall, over Mr. J. P. Beauchamp's store.

—A prairie fire would not get much chance to run far in this section of country. The settlers have plowed fire breaks very freely over the prairie as a preventative.

—The nomination of candidates for the vacancy in the Northwest Council caused by the resignation of Mr. T. W. Jackson, takes place at Indian Head today from noon, until 14 o'clock. Mr. A. J. Baker is the returning officer.

—Mr. James Weidman, editor of THE PROGRESS went to Winnipeg on Wednesday morning to take in the Manitoba Provincial Exhibition. He will return on Friday evening accompanied by Mrs. Weidman and family who have been visiting her parents in Southern Manitoba.

—Mr. E. W. Warner, our popular C. P. R. station agent is going away next week on a two months trip. Ed has earned his holiday; he has not taken one for two years, and they have been two years of hard work. Mr. J. A. Kammerer, of Indian Head will fill his place in his absence.

—On Tuesday last Judge Richardson held a justice here of the High Court of Justice of the Territories. Quite a lengthy docket was disposed of. There were in attendance a number of the legal fraternity of Regina and Fort Qu'Appelle as well as this place. The attendance of witnesses and others interested in the several cases was quite large.

—A supper and an address will be given by the ladies of the Methodist church, Qu'Appelle, on Wednesday, 6th October, in aid of the new parsonage fund. The supper will be given in the new barn, an address by Mrs. Rev. Alfred Andrews on "Courtesy," will follow in the church. Several choice pieces of music, etc. will also be given. Admission to cover all, 50 cents each, children half price.

—On Tuesday evening Mrs. Youmans, the celebrated temperance worker, delivered a lecture on her inspiring subject—Gospel Temperance—in the Methodist church here, to a very brilliant audience, who seemed to appreciate her words to the fullest extent. A collection was taken up at the close, when will be applied to the Methodist parsonage fund.

—At the Ladies' J. Collier, Fort Qu'Appelle, Judge Richardson, D. Watson, J. H. Brown, R. H. Williams, C. Smith, Regina; D. W. Mills, Winnipeg; B. Gammon, New York; W. Boyd, Mr. Glenn and wife, M. C. —The brass band instruments have arrived, and here, there and everywhere night is made hideous by the groans of some old sick cow, or the yell of the coyote, or the rattle by the wind of some loose board against an old dilapidated stable. That is right boys we are pleased to see you are not afraid to try; it angers well for your success. You will, no doubt in a few days show that you are making progress, and we hope next week to chronicle great improvement.

—A deputation of Reginaites met Mr. T. W. Jackson here today with the object of inducing the Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle railway to build their line through Regina. We have not learned the result.

—We learn from a reliable source that Major Phipps of Summerbury, is not a candidate for the North West Council; that gentleman retires from the contest and signifies his intention of giving Mr. G. S. Davidson his support.

—At the Queen's: Mr. Lindsay and wife, J. Johnston, Brandon; P. J. Williams, File Hills; J. Swan, Regina; F. W. Young, F. Dowler, F. Smith, Winnipeg; A. W. Hodgson, Toronto; C. Cole and wife, A. J. Kammerer, Indian Head; Prof. Tanner, London, Eng.; T. W. Jackson, W. Smith, T. Armistead, T. Baker, J. Carscadden, Fort Qu'Appelle; J. Haywood, Moose Jaw; A. D. McDonald, Sinitaluta.

WE WONDER

—Who stole the bell rope?
—What is the matter with the town bell-ringer?

—How many candidates will be nominated tomorrow?

—Why so many are so eager to write "M. N. W. C." after their names?

—If the Regina people think they are going to get the Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle Railway?

—Why Mr. Gordon did not declare himself a candidate sooner?

—Why some people say Mr. Gordon is just running because Mr. Davidson is a candidate?
